

Parent Code of Conduct

Club Name: _____

This Code of Conduct creates a focused and consistent environment for practices and games.

- Parents may not communicate with or coach players during practices or games, except in emergencies.
- Parents must remain in designated spectator areas and away from the pool deck and bench.
- Parents may take photos but must return to spectator seating afterward and follow all communication rules.
- Parents are expected to model positive behavior and sportsmanship at all times.
- Respect toward players, coaches, referees, and opposing teams is mandatory.
- Only positive, supportive cheering is acceptable.
- Questions or concerns should be addressed before or after practice, preferably via email.
- Violations of this Code may result in removal from practices or games and could affect a player's participation.

This Code of Conduct applies to all practices, games, and team events.
